

JENNIFER KAHNWEILER

Ph.D. & CSP
Global Speaker and Author

Bio

Jennifer B. Kahnweiler, PhD, Certified Speaking Professional, is an author and one of the top global leadership speakers on introverts. She is hailed as a “champion for introverts” who helps organizations, teams, and individuals with understanding introverts. Her bestselling books, The Introverted Leader: 2nd Edition, Quiet Influence, and The Genius of Opposites have been translated into 17 languages and help introverts throughout the world expand their leadership capacity.

Jennifer is an expert at understanding introverts. She has deepened her knowledge and appreciation for introverts through her work as a learning and development professional and speaker at leading organizations like Merck, NASA, Bosch, The American Chemical Society, Freddie Mac, the US Centers for Disease Control, the American Management Association, and TEDX Centennial Park Women.

Jennifer has been invited to deliver keynote speeches and seminars from Spain to Singapore. She has also been featured in Fortune, Forbes, Time Magazine, The New York Times, and The Wall Street Journal.

Jennifer serves as Vice President of the National Speakers Association of Georgia and is on the advisory board of Becoming A Welder. She derives joy from being a mom and grandmother and by serving as a mentor to many professional women. She is a native New Yorker and now calls Atlanta, GA home.
