

Introduction

Jennifer Kahnweiler (Pronounced: CON-why-ler)

Think about a team that you're involved in. It could be a work team, a volunteer team, maybe a social team. Do you have one? [Pause] Okay. Now, what would it look like if you could double the effectiveness of that team? Our speaker today says you can do that by tapping into the wisdom and influence of both introverts and extroverts.

Jennifer Kahnweiler, Ph.D., CSP is an author and global speaker who's called "the champion for introverts." Her bestselling books, The Introverted Leader, Quiet Influence, The Genius of Opposites, and Creating Introvert-Friendly Workplaces have been translated into 17 languages.

Jennifer has consulted with hundreds of organizations including NASA, Capital One, the CDC, and Amazon. She has run leadership programs from Singapore to Spain and has been featured in Forbes, Time Magazine, and The Wall Street Journal.

While Jennifer herself is an extrovert, her husband Bill is an introvert. And, side note, he'd like to thank us for booking her... so he can finally get some quiet time!

Today, she is going to show us how to harness the talent of our entire workforce, including introverts AND extroverts!

Please help me welcome Jennifer!

After the Speech: Let's thank Jennifer once more for being here! I know I certainly learned a lot. Her books are available at all places books are sold. Thanks again, Jennifer!"
